TED DELANEY IS NAMED PRESIDENT-ELECT OF UNIVERSITY ALUMNI ASSOCIATION

MISSOULA--

Ted Delaney, a Missoula businessman and graduate of the University of Montana class of 1947, was recently elected president-elect of the UM Alumni Association for 1976-77.

Another UM alumnus, Carl Suhr Jr., a Glendive businessman and member of the UM class of 1952, was elected a three-year delegate-at-large to the Alumni Association for 1975-78.

Delaney has one year in which to become familiar with his duties before he takes office in April of 1976. Henry 'Dutch' Dahmer '43 of Great Falls, elected last year, is the incoming president. He takes office next month, succeeding Maurice Colberg '57 of Billings.

Suhr joins Ward Shanahan '58, of Helena and Jeff Doggett '52, of White Sulphur Springs as delegates-at-large. The delegates-at-large are elected at large to represent the membership of the UM Alumni Association, which includes all alumni, alumnae and former students. One delegate is elected each year and serves a three-year term.

Delaney, who graduated with a B.A. degree in journalism, is president of Delaney's Bureau of Printing in Missoula. He is a member of the Missoula Rotary Club, Missoula Chamber of Commerce (past president), Missoula Country Club, Century Club and he is the Sigma Nu regional advisor and past district governor of the National Office Products Association. He and his wife, M.J., have two children.

Suhr graduated from UM with a B.S. degree in business administration and is presently manager of Suhr Transports in Glendive. He is a member of the Elk's Club, Masons, Shriners, Aircraft Owners and Pilots Association and serves on the Board of Directors of the Glendive Airport Commission. He and his wife, Shirley, have three children.

Besides the three delegates-at-large, each of the 13 UM Alumni Association districts within Montana is represented in the House of Delegates by two delegates. One delegate from each district is elected each year and serves for two years.

This year the new delegates are: Earl Lovick '47, Libby; Calvin Ness '58, Harlowton; Ann Rawlings Cole '53, Malta; Randy Urbanec '64, Glendive; Kenneth Wilson '62, Miles City; Robert Tirrell '61, Red Lodge; Robert Hauch '65, Big Timber; Shirley McShane Miller '49, Helena; James Robischon '56, Butte; H. Bruce Maclay '51, Florence; Robert Arnot, Jr. '61 Conrad; Frank Shaw '37, Deer Lodge and K. Dale Schwanke '68, Great Falls.

Other members of the House of Delegates include: W. E. 'Eddie' Pinkney '32, Polson; Jane Law Glennie '60, Twodot; Gail McLain Rader '59, Havre; Lois Larson Koch '48, Sidney; Gene Huntley '53, Baker; Jan Ilona Rodeghiero '57, Roundup; Ed Argenbright '56, Big Timber; William Doggett '52, White Sulphur Springs; Betsy Brown Holmquist '67, Dillon; James Koke '67, Superior; John Kavanaugh '61, Shelby; John Radonich '60, Anaconda; and Gail Paige Good '63, Fort Benton.

Delaney, Suhr and the new delegates will be installed at the annual Alumni Association meeting on April 18-19 at the UM Alumni Center.

The UM Alumni Association is a nonprofit corporation, organized pursuant to the law of the State of Montana "to promote the traditions, culture, general welfare and best interests of the people of the State of Montana through the continued development, promotion and support of the University of Montana.

Specifically, the association is empowered to make grants and award scholarships to deserving young people who may wish to attend the University, and to receive and maintain gifts of real and personal property, and to use such property exclusively for educational purposes.
